PREFACE

THE delay in the publication of this year's volume, although regrettable, was due to unexpected mechanical causes, and not to the transition in the general editorship.

This volume follows closely the scheme of its immediate predecessors, as laid down by my much lamented friend, the late Luther S. Livingston,* the originator of American Book-Prices Current. He had wrought out the plan so completely, that it seemed to me wise to follow it; to make modifications in the future sparingly, and only when circumstances arose that suggested an alteration. Just now, the growing interest of collectors and scholars in autographs and manuscripts suggests an expansion of that section of the volume. The sales of this season have, in the Joline, Thacher, Lossing, Stevenson, and other collections, brought into the market an interesting array of such material, so that the volume has grown greater, proportionately, in that respect.

Our record this year shows that, despite the European war, the prices realized have kept well up to the standard. It emphasizes, moreover, that the better classes of printed materials and the choicer autographs and manuscripts are increasing in price under competition. The season showed a preponderance of sales of Americana, of which there were about forty, and most of the nearly fifty sales of miscellaneous libraries also supplied the market with a fair representation of American items. In the miscellaneous sales, choice books on the arts were well represented. Of sales of autographs and manuscripts there were more than twenty-five, not to mention such materials in other sales. Several sales included very good Napoleonic items; others offered good pickings in first editions of literary works and there were some desirable offerings of illustrated books.

* The friends of Mr. Livingston are referred to an interesting biographical sketch, written by George Parker Winship, with a bibliography of Mr. Livingston's works and contributions, printed in the "Papers" of the Bibliographical Society of America, Vol. VIII, Nos. 3-4, 1914, pp. 109-134.

Among special authors, the Stevenson sales take first rank. Eugene Field was represented by the Hanvey collection; Kipling by the Williamson collection, and Thackeray by the Behrend collection. The Cleven sale offered incunabula; there was one distinctive sale of bibliography. The drama had two, angling and sports two, art three, and law six distinctive sales. During the season, the Merwin Sales Company, successor to Bangs and Company and other copartnerships, went out of business with the sale of March 26-27, 1915, ending the longest continuous career of book auctioneers in the annals of American bookselling.

Some idea of the gross sums realized from the disposal of several collections may not be uninteresting, namely: Robert Louis Stevenson, two parts, $66,494.95; Brayton Ives, $56,302; Adrian H. Joline, six parts, $53,537.25; Mrs. J. F. Lovejoy, $18,615.20; C. C. Moreau, $15,329; B. A. Behrend (Thackeray), $14,818.70; Gooch and Fowler, $13,786.80; John Boyd Thacher, parts 4 and 5, $7,534.10; James Dunne, $6,800.55; G. M. Williamson (Kipling), $5,648.85; Maj. Gen. S. W. Crawford, $3,263; Paul Wilkinson, $3,253; Wilberforce Eames, part 4, $2,621.55; Madam Louisa Nidelet, $2,207; John Heise, $1,731; Benson J. Lossing, part 7, $1,503.85; and certain unnamed sales, $5,519, $4,655, $3,581, and $1,076, held respectively, on February 17, February 5, May 14, and May 7-8, 1915, by the American Art Association.

When it is realized how much the catalogues of auction sales vary in method and in the quality of preparation, it will appear evident that the proper adjustment of these materials for presentation, in the manner given in American Book-Prices Current, is a very great task, requiring an almost incalculable amount of bibliographical and other research. In addition thereto, every item is considered with respect to its condensation, adjustment by transposition, and systematization in an orderly scheme. This work has been an almost daily task of Miss C. E. Dyett on this volume, as in preceding years, besides preparing all of this material for the printer, she has been responsible for the printer's proofs. My part as general editor has been that of selection and elimination from the great mass of titles mounted on cards, and the general oversight of the work. These have been lightened by Miss Dyett's unflagging devotion, and I take pleasure in giving public recognition to her for the pains-taking and efficient work which she has performed.

The present volume contains records of 13,340 lots selected from 127 catalogues describing some 86,960 lots. As it may come into the hands of some persons not familiar with the work, the following explanation of the abbreviations used and of the scheme of the work is reprinted from the earlier volumes.

The name of the author (or, in the case of anonymous books, the first word of the title) is set in black-faced capitals.

Club or Press publications are (generally) under the Club or Press, and a few other books, such as anonymous histories and biographies, are entered under their subject. The titles of the various works of an author, printed in black-faced lower case type, are arranged in alphabetical order. This is followed by the place where printed (in a few cases), the date, and the size of the volume. The first portion of the description is general and applies to all copies of the work. Following this general description is the specific description of the copy or copies of the book as sold, each lot beginning a new line. This specific description is made up as follows:

First. A description of the binding, the abbreviations being those which are universally used and understood.

Second. A statement as to the condition of the particular copy recorded, if on large paper, if with extra plates inserted, if from a famous library, etc.

Third. The name of the sale where the name was given on the catalogue. This does not mean in every case that the name as given is that of the owner of the book, as additions from other unannounced sources are often included with books of a known owner.

Fourth. Capital letter, indicating the name of the auctioneer under whose management the sale took place:

- A. is the Anderson Auction Company and the Metropolitan Art Association.
- B. is Charles F. Heartman.
- G. is the American Art Association.
- H. is Stan. V. Henkels.
- L. is C. F. Libbie and Company.
- M. is the Merwin Sales Company.
- S. is Scott & O'Shaughnessy, Inc.

Fifth. The date of the sale. In case of sales of more than a single day's duration this date is that of the first day of the sale.

Sixth. The lot number in the original sale catalogue.

Seventh. The price realized. This is the price for the lot, not per volume.
